United Nations University

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its previous resolutions on the United Nations University,

Welcoming the appointment of Mr. Hans van Ginkel by the Secretary-General in September 1997 as the fourth Rector of the United Nations University,

Having considered the report of the Council of the United Nations University,[1] the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations University,[2] the report of the Joint Inspection Unit on the United Nations University as transmitted by the Secretary-General[3] and the comments of the Secretary-General on the report of the Joint Inspection Unit on the United Nations University,[4]

Bearing in mind the need to ensure a coordinated system-wide approach to training and training-related research issues as well as to establish a coherent strategy for building on common fields of interest and complementarities between the various training and research institutions within the United Nations system,

Expressing its deep appreciation for the voluntary contributions made to date by Governments and other public and private entities in support of the University,

Noting with appreciation the efforts made by the Rector of the United Nations University in intensifying his interaction with United Nations Headquarters in the context of the development and implementation of a University-wide strategic plan which would help the University determine an overall strategic direction for the future, and in this context encouraging him to further enhance interdisciplinary research, as recommended in the comments of the Secretary-General on the report of the Joint Inspection Unit,

Noting also with appreciation the efforts made by the Rector in initiating a self-assessment of the University,

1. Welcomes the completion of the review of the United Nations University carried out by the Joint Inspection Unit and the internal assessment conducted by the Ad Hoc Committee of the University's Governing Council and the comments of the Secretary-General on the report of the Joint Inspection Unit;

2. Takes note with appreciation of the steps taken by the Council and the Rector of the United Nations University to promote the work and the visibility of the University, particularly among Member States, the United Nations and its agencies, through such measures as organizing a series of public forums for the purpose of disseminating the results of its research, and requests them to further intensify such efforts;

3. Welcomes the progress made by the University in contributing to the work of the United Nations, and requests the Council and the Rector to continue intensifying their efforts to improve the University's interaction and communication with other relevant bodies of the United Nations system, and to continue their efforts to avoid unnecessary duplication of work within the system;

4. Also requests the Council and the Rector to enhance further coordination and complementarity between the University's research and training centres and its programmes, keeping in mind the relevant recommendations of the report of the Joint Inspection Unit entitled "Training institutions in the United Nations system: programmes and activities";[5]

5. Recognizes the importance of creating linkages, collaboration and cooperation with other research institutions and universities in developing countries in order to facilitate the exchange of experience and best practices, so as to mainstream the perspective of developing countries in the activities of the University;

6. Requests the Secretary-General, in this connection, to continue his consideration of innovative measures to improve interaction and communication between the University and other relevant bodies of the United Nations system, to ensure that the work of the University is taken into account in all relevant activities of the system, taking into account General Assembly resolution 51/187 of 16 December 1996, so that the United Nations system may draw more extensively upon the work of the University, and to submit a report thereon to the Assembly at its fifty-fifth session;

7. Welcomes the intention of the University to strengthen its policy-analysis and capacity-building activities in conjunction with the continuation of fundamental research and reflection in the strategic plan now being developed by the University for 1999–2002;

8. Requests the Secretary-General to encourage the further participation of the University in the work of the United Nations, and also requests him, taking into account resolution 51/187, to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session on such further participation of the University in the activities of the Administrative Committee on Coordination and its subsidiary machinery, as well as through other existing structures and modalities for communication, interaction and synergy;

9. Urges the University, in its allocation of fellowships, to increase the number of researchers from developing countries, thereby enabling them to benefit from the knowledge, expertise and skills of the University and enhance capacity-building efforts in developing countries, particularly in educational and research institutions;

10. Requests the Council and the Rector, taking into account resolution 51/187, to continue to make further efforts to ensure the efficiency and cost-effectiveness of the activities of the University, as well as its financial transparency and accountability, to intensify efforts to augment its Endowment Fund and to find innovative ways to mobilize operating contributions and other programme and project support;

11. Invites the international community to make voluntary contributions to the University, including its research and training centres and programmes, in particular to the Endowment Fund.
